

A Talk with Jesus

A practice to help build a conversational relationship with Jesus.

Revelation 3:20 – “Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me.”

Part 1

Imagine that Jesus is visiting your neighborhood and stopping at each house to say hello. He'll be at your door in five minutes. Ask yourself the following questions:

What will you say to Him when he arrives?

What is He going to ask you?

What are you going to ask Him?

Is there anything you want to clean up first or put away?

Are there any rooms in your house that you don't want Him to see?

Take two or three minutes to think through preparing your house for His coming.

Part 2

Imagine that Jesus has arrived at your door. Greet Him and picture letting Him in the door as you do with other guests. You may even offer Him something to drink or eat. Just let the visit unfold as with a friend. Perhaps you want to take Him on a tour of your home and show Him things you are proud of. Or just ask Him to sit down and chat in your favorite space.

As the conversation progresses, take a minute to discuss the questions or issues that surfaced in the first part of the exercise. Give yourself ample silence so you can hear what Jesus might say through the Holy Spirit.
