“But it is all there,” says the loving Lord, “though you cannot see any of it, for it has been completely blotted out and apparently vanished into nothingness. But, remember, nothing is missing. It is invisible now but it is waiting to become visible again. And its last message to you is this: Believe steadfastly in the invisible things. ‘For the things which are seen are temporal; but things which are not seen are eternal’”

Isaiah: The Majesty of God – The Peaceable Kingdom

Ken Van Vliet

Isaiah 11

A little visual help...

A new _____ (v. 1)

His character (v. 2-3b)

His actions (v. 3b-5)

A new _____ (v. 6-9)

Our Role

Come together with _____ as our _____ of _____ (v. 10-12)

Peace with our _____ and _____ (v. 13)

Peace with the _____ (v. 14-16)

Getting practical: who, what, and how

Further Reflection: This week go back to the who, what, and how of the message. With whom is God calling you to peace? What step do you need to take? How does the life, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus empower you to bring peace?
