The Lord said, "Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by."

Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake came a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper. When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave.

Then a voice said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

Joshua, The Whisper of Wisdom: “Why Josh & Why a Whisper?”

Dan Navarra

The big question: Am I going to _____ that what God has in front of me is worth _____ with him for?

After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua son of Nun, Moses’ aide: 2 “Moses my servant is dead. _____, you and all these people, get ready to cross the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to them—to the Israelites. Joshua 1:1-2

Taking the land is more about _____ than _____.

For Reflection:

What “now then” moments have I experienced in the past where I’ve seen God show up in a big way? How difficult is it for you to hear the whisper of God’s wisdom in your life? What might be standing in the way of you hearing more clearly?
