Welcome to our Sunday worship service. As you settle in this morning reflect on this past week with the words of this Psalm.

O God, you are my God,
earnestly I seek you;
my soul thirsts for you,
my body longs for you,
in a dry and weary land
where there is no water.

I have seen you in the sanctuary
and beheld your power and your glory.
Because your love is better than life,
my lips will glorify you.
I will praise you as long as I live,
and in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul will be satisfied as with the richest of foods;
with singing lips my mouth will praise you.

On my bed I remember you;
I think of you through the watches of the night.
Because you are my help,
I sing in the shadow of your wings.
My soul clings to you;
your right hand upholds me.

—Psalm 63:1-8

For Further Reflection:

As you go through your week, notice when your Christ-following is marked by self-effort and striving as opposed to surrender. What might it look like to actually live out what Jesus made possible; that what is most true of you is God in you?
