

November 17, 2019

Welcome to our Sunday worship service. As you settle in this morning listen to how God is leading you today. Still your heart and turn your ears to his voice.

We lift our eyes to the mountains – where does our help come from?
Our help comes from the Lord,
 the maker of heaven and earth.

He will not let our feet slip –
 He who watches over us will not slumber
Indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord watches over us –
 The Lord is our shade at our right hand;
the sun will not harm us by day,
 nor the moon by night.

The Lord will keep us from all harm –
 he will watch over our lives;
the Lord will watch over our coming and going both now and forevermore.

Host: Ken Van Vliet

Worship Leaders: Melanie Moen and Justin Williamson

Music from this week:

Rock of Ages [McCracken]; No Longer Slaves
[Shane & Shane]; Here's My Heart Lord [Crowder];
It Is Well [Spafford]

To register for an event, read The Weekly, or give online visit mvcturlock.com

Hebrews: The Call to Endurance

Eric Johns — Hebrews 12

Your faith journey is a long-distance race, and Hebrews 12 reminds us...

"This is hard...and, because of Christ, _____
_____!"

1. What do you do when you've grown _____ and cannot endure? (v 12:1-4)

Deal with what's _____

Run with _____

Lift up your _____ ...to Jesus

2. Reorient our reality to the _____ of God (v 12:5-11)

God is our loving _____

God is _____ working _____

3. _____ breeds endurance (v 12:12-17)

Be _____ on what is important long term

Be _____ to one another

Watch out for _____

4. We have hope in an _____ (v 12:18-29)

Hope because of a new _____ through Jesus

Hope because of access to the Kingdom's _____

Hope because of access to our _____ who _____ and _____ us

For Further Reflection:

What places do you need the Father to lift and sustain you? Where do you need the "Cloud of Witnesses," your community, to encourage you? Write down those areas and present them to the Father as a prayer.