

April 14, 2019

This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

“Say to Daughter Zion,
‘See, your king comes to you,
gentle and riding on a donkey,
and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.’”

They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on. A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, “Hosanna to the Son of David!”

“Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”

“Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

“This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Music from this week:

Hosanna [Baloche]; Jesus Messiah [Tomlin]; God I Look To You [Battistelli]; Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus [Lemmel]

Isaiah: The Majesty of God – Jesus The Suffering Servant

Eric Johns

Isaiah 53

Who He is (v.1)

The “Arm of God” = God in _____

Why He came (v. 4-6)

To deal with the problem of _____

What He did (v. 11)

He _____ us to God

So that...

We have an opportunity to _____ how He _____ Further Reflection: Practice a sacred reading (lectio divina) of Isaiah 53 this week in preparation for Easter Sunday. Read through the chapter 3 times. The first time ask: “What is this passage saying?” The second time: “How does this scripture speak to my life?” And the last time you read the chapter ask: “Father, what are you inviting me to?” Consider how you can gracefully cooperate with Him.
