

June 30, 2019

---

Oh, Lord my God,
You called me from the sleep of nothingness
merely because in your tremendous love
you want to make good and beautiful beings.
You have called me by my name in my mother's womb.

You have given me breath and light and movement
and walked with me every moment of my existence.
I am amazed, Lord God of the universe,
that you attend to me and, more, cherish me.
Create in me the faithfulness that moves you,
and I will trust you and yearn for you all my days.

Amen.

—Joseph Tetlow, SJ

I will build my life upon Your love
It is a firm foundation
And I will put my trust in You alone
And I will not be shaken

Music from this week:

Oh How I Need You, Great Are You Lord [All Sons and Daughters]; No Longer Slaves [Shane & Shane]; Build My Life [Housefires]

Follow Me: Jesus is Humble

Dave Nieuwsma

Luke 14:1-14

Humility and compassion restate and elevate _____

_____

Humility and _____ _____ move in different directions

Humility allows our own _____ _____ to cause _____ _____ in someone else

Further Reflection:

As you go through the week and are in situations where your voice is not heard or you are treated unfairly, ask God to remind you to be humble. Take a moment to slow down and allow the Holy Spirit to speak. Allow the voice of the Holy Spirit to grow and your need for control to lessen. Allow Christ's humility to show through you into the world around you.
